Young Writers' Club - A creative writing programme

- The Foundation for Educational Services (FES) is organising the eagerly awaited Young Writers' Club for children in Year 4 up to Form 2! Throughout the club sessions, children are encouraged to develop their creative writing skills in Maltese and English through the use of the writing process.
- At the same time, parents/guardians can opt to attend the Parents' Writing Club. These parallel sessions are targeted to parents/guardians who are interested to learn how to help their child develop their writing skills.
- At the end of the programme a celebration will be held. Children will share their writing experience with their parents/guardians. Participants who attend regularly, 80% attendance, will be given a certificate of participation.

Day:	Every Saturday between 15 th March and 10 th May 2014 Parents/Guradians are invited to the last session. More information will be provided at a later stage.
Time:	9.30am till noon
